OUR MISSION

A Dollar A Day Foundation is a national charity based in Newfoundland and Labrador. Founded in 2016, the Foundation's mission is to narrow the gap between the need for, and the availability of, mental health and addictions services in Canada. With proper supports, despair can be replaced by hope, dignity, and the opportunity to give back.

LETTER FROM OUR FOUNDERS

Dear Dollar-A-Dayers and Supporters,

When we first came together to dream up A Dollar A Day back on Tibb's Eve in 2015, we couldn't have imagined the community it would create and the impact it would have in a few short years. What started with Alan sharing a loonie with a fellow he passed each day on his way to the studio has now grown to over $4,000,000 shared with 109 organizations in every province and territory in Canada. And we are only getting started.

2023 was a transformational year for A Dollar A Day. After an exhaustive search, we welcomed a passionate and committed new Executive Director - Heather Spratt. Heather brings over 15 years of senior experience in the charitable sector, alongside personal experience as an individual living with a mental illness. She immediately fell in love with our community of Dollar-A-Dayers and set out to bring more folks to the fold.

In 2023 we transitioned from a start-up phase into a shoring-up phase, building policies, procedures, and plans to set us up for success over the years to come. We are proud of our program and granting percentage of 87.1%, sharing $1,170,000 with 42 organizations across Canada.

All of this is possible only with your support. When caring individuals, foundations, and corporations come together, we have a profound impact upon those facing mental health and addictions challenges. Together we are lifting each other up, helping folks return to hope, health, and dignity, and changing the odds around mental health and addictions. Thank you for helping us make change every day.

With profound gratitude,
Alan Doyle and Brendan Paddick
Co-Founders and Dollar-A-Dayers

Tim Hortons smile cookie™ Campaign

TIM HORTONS SMILE COOKIE WEEK

Tim Hortons Smile Cookie Week raises millions of dollars for charities across Canada every year. In 2023, the Tim Hortons franchise owners in Calgary chose A Dollar A Day as the recipient of their Smile Cookie proceeds - donating a staggering $347,811.22!

They chose A Dollar A Day for several reasons. Its mission to narrow the gap for the need for and the availability of mental health and addictions services resonates with the owners, who know that half of their customers, their employees, and their loved ones are or will be directly impacted by addiction and/or mental illness.

The owners also chose A Dollar A Day for the exponential reach of the gift. Their single gift to A Dollar A Day had an impact on thousands. By rounding up the Smile Cookie proceeds to $350,000, A Dollar A Day granted $25,000 to each of 14 local organizations focused on mental health and addictions. The causes supported by Tim Hortons and A Dollar A Day serve folks as diverse as Calgary's unhoused population (Calgary Drop-In Centre, Alpha House Society), its citizens in recovery (Calgary Dream Centre, Simon House, Alcove Addiction Recovery Centre), Indigenous women and children escaping intimate partner violence (Awo Taan Healing Lodge Society), and those dealing with suicidal thoughts (Distress Centre Calgary).

Thank you to Tim Hortons in Calgary, to all of you who purchased Smile Cookies, and to our generous donors. Together we are not only changing lives; we are saving lives. Tim Hortons Smile Cookies - a delicious way to make a difference with A Dollar A Day.

THRIVE: PROVIDING SUPPORT WITH THE HELP OF A DOLLAR A DAY

Thrive is an innovative organization providing direct support and services to marginalized individuals in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador. One of A Dollar A Day's earliest causes, Thrive has been able to enhance their mental health-focused initiatives significantly thanks to A Dollar A Day's support. Mental health initiatives at Thrive provide comprehensive supports and resources that foster positive change in participants' lives.

Funding from A Dollar A Day specifically supports Thrive's Street Reach Program, which includes drop-in services, street-based outreach and holistic wrap around supports for individuals that require a high level of support to access the resources they need.

Executive Director Angela Crockwell shares that "our core funding does not provide adequate financial resources for our staffing needs, but support from A Dollar A Day helps us to fill that gap and meet the growing demand for supports and services."

In the last year, Thrive has responded to 1,326 support requests related to mental health, and has made 11,258 support engagements.

"I'm more committed to maintaining my mental health. I'm on my medications and talking through things a lot more. The staff here are super helpful with that"

"My mental-health and stress management skills are way up. I can handle myself in stressful situations so much better now. I know how to eat better and I just feel like I want to take care of my body now and not drink as much"

"They've helped me with moving into my new spot, with dental work I needed, food and even art supplies. It's a big mental health support"

WORDS FROM THRIVE PARTICIPANTS

ᐃᑦᐱᑦᐱᑦᐱᑦ ILISAQSIVIK

Beneficiary Spotlight

ILISAQSIVIK SOCIETY WAS THE NUNAVUT RECIPIENT OF A DOLLAR A DAY'S CHANGE MAKERS AWARD IN 2023.

The organization was chosen for its impactful work for community members, including youth programming, its Inuit counsellor training program, and a range of culturally relevant community-based programs and counselling services delivered in Inuktitut.

When asked to describe a program of which she is particularly proud, Executive Director Jennifer Jaypoody selected the Angunasuktiit Program. The Angunasuktiit Program is run through the Ittaq Heritage and Research Centre, a division of Ilisaqsivik Society. Angunasuktiit is a full-time hunting and land-based apprenticeship program where participants gain confidence in their skills, their abilities, and themselves.

Participants in the program learn all aspects of harvesting and being on the land, taught by five full-time expert hunter-instructors from the community. The food harvested is shared freely to families, community members, Elders, and with food programs at Ilisaqsivik. The program increases access to healthy country foods and is training the next generation of hunters. Angunasuktiit also conducts environmental research and monitoring, and is demonstrating the many benefits and impacts of supporting full-time harvesters in a community.

A Dollar A Day believes in supporting local organizations that meet the specific needs of their community members in a way that is appropriate and meaningful to them. Ilisaqsivik Society is a brilliant example of this philosophy in action and we are proud to support its excellent work.

D.R. SOBEEY FOUNDATION

THE D. R. SOBEEY FOUNDATION HAS STEADFASTLY SUPPORTED A DOLLAR A DAY...

... since 2020. This commitment began when Rob Sobey and Executive Director Bernard Doucet engaged with our charity's leadership, gaining insight into our impact on mental health and addiction service providers across Canada.

In 2023, the D. R. Sobey Foundation's contribution supported frontline service delivery, offset administrative costs, and matched donations during one of Alan Doyle's Suppertime Singalong fundraisers. These contributions made a tremendous difference to A Dollar A Day's ability to support proven programs across Canada.

"A Dollar A Day reaches folks in every part of Canada, much like the D.R. Sobey Foundation. And just like us, it serves people in communities big and small. Partnering with A Dollar A Day is another way for us to support Canadians and contribute to their good health," shares Bernard. "We take great pride in being a part of the donor family and the community of service that defines A Dollar A Day."

Part of A Dollar A Day's philosophy of giving is that 100% of individual gifts go directly to supporting mental health and addictions programs across the country. Support from organizations like the D.R. Sobey Foundation allows us to keep that core promise to our Dollar-A-Dayers, while also sharing more with frontline organizations.

Thanks to support from the D.R. Sobey Foundation, A Dollar A Day was able to give to more organizations than ever in 2023, reaching every province and territory, while also sustaining our mandatory operations needs such as accounting, human resources requirements, and administrative supplies.

Bernard adds, "We take great pride in knowing that part of our gift sustains the vital infrastructure of A Dollar A Day, ensuring that individual donations go straight to mental health and addiction service providers. Moreover, our gift serves as a catalyst for others to contribute. It creates a circle of care that uplifts everyone involved, and we're thrilled to be part of such a supportive community."

KAREN'S STORY

KAREN POST IS ONE OF OUR FIRST DOLLAR-A-DAYERS...

...having come to Dollar A Day in 2018. Since then, in addition to her personal giving, she has invited other Dollar-A-Dayers into our community, but what she is perhaps best known for is her fundraisers - including selling stained glass holiday ornaments and her famous butter tarts.

Karen lost a dear friend to suicide in 2013. She shares that despite doing "all the things you're supposed to do" after his loss, she still found life very empty. Five years into her grief, she chose to make a change, "to focus on the life rather than the loss." She started fundraising, donating the proceeds to A Dollar A Day.

"I wanted it to mean something; I wanted it to go to an organization where it will make a difference," Karen recounts. "I didn't want my gift to be cheque number 345 ... and you never knew what it did. I wanted it to mean as much as the life that was being celebrated."

Karen liked that A Dollar A Day came with a high trust factor, and that the organization was just asking for a dollar. "It just made sense. You knew it was only a dollar, but collectively it makes a big difference."

Her butter tart sales regularly raise north of $1000. "The butter tarts sell themselves. But I put in a note about A Dollar A Day so buyers know where their money is going. Sometimes it brings new people to the cause, but if it doesn't reach someone who can help, it might reach someone who needs help."

Karen enjoys contributing to A Dollar A Day, but it is just as important for her to raise awareness. "It isn't just about raising money, it's about being part of a community, part of a movement. We need to take away whatever shame there still is around mental health and addictions."

We asked Karen what she likes about being a Dollar-A-Dayer: "It's so simple! I give you my dollar, and you give it to the people who make the magic. When I give my dollar, I know 100% it's going to an organization that is making a difference in people's lives. It's that easy to make a difference. It's huge."

THANK YOU TO ALL OUR DONORS, WHO MAKE CHANGE EVERY DAY

Their generosity isn't just about dollars; it's about believing that everyone deserves access to mental health and addictions services, from coast to coast to coast. It is because of them that we are able to help our mental health and addictions partners do the life-changing work they do every day.
